Georgia-Pacific and the Environment . . . What A Great Team

The Georgia-Pacific Monticello Mill is more than a paper mill. G-P cares about the air, land, water, soil, wildlife and the natural resources.

G-P's goal is to be good environmental stewards. Working through the Wildlife Habitat Council's Wildlife at Work program, employees developed a long-term management plan to enhance wildlife on the mill property, employee morale and environmental awareness.

The Monticello mill is the first certified Wildlife Habitat Council site in the state of Mississippi.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I am pleased to welcome you to Copiah-Lincoln Community College. I hope you enjoy your visit to our campus.

Co-Lin has a rich tradition of successful athletic programs. This tradition continues as our athletic teams and individual athletes excel in their competitive arenas. In addition to posting outstanding athletic accomplishments for the 2003-2004 seasons, several teams and individual students were recognized by the NJCAA for Academic All-American honors: Lady Wolves Tennis Team was recognized as 1st in the nation for the second consecutive year; they have been recognized as being in the top two for five of the past six years! The Men's Tennis Team was recognized as 2nd in the nation; they have been in the top three for the past three years. The Wolfpack Baseball Team was ranked 10th in the nation; they have been ranked in the top 10 for five of the past six years! What a tradition of excellence in these sports! In addition, the following students were named Distinguished Academic All-Americans: Kathy Phillips of Brookhaven (women's tennis) and Elise Dixon of Liberty (softball).

Ryan Canon of Bogue Chitto (men's tennis) was named Academic All-American. We are extremely proud of these teams and individual athletes!

Our coaching staff is dedicated to providing our athletes with the best training possible, and the opportunity for them to learn and practice good sportsmanship, while enjoying a variety of competitive sports. We deeply appreciate their dedication and hard work to make our athletic programs outstanding.

We offer our thanks to our students, family members and patrons for your support of our athletic program. Your continued support of our athletic programs makes Co-Lin a very special place.

We extend a warm welcome to our visiting coaches and athletic teams. To our visitors, friends and colleagues, we hope you enjoy your stay, and we welcome you back at any time.

COACHING STAFF

Gwyn Young
Athletic Director, Women's Basketball Coach

Serving as athletic director since 1989, Gwyn Young has been head coach of the Lady Wolves basketball team for 28 years. In that time he has put the Lady Wolves on the map as one of the nation's most premier athletic and academic teams. He has compiled a record of 608 wins and 184 losses to rank him as one of the top winningest NJCAA coaches in the nation.

Under Young's direction, the Lady Wolves have accomplished numerous awards including 17 regular season first place finishes, 11 South Division Championships, 15 State Tournament Appearances, State Championships in 1993, 1997, 1999, 2002, and 2003; Runner-up State Championship in 1983, 1984, and 1998; Runner-up in the Region XXIII Championship in 1990, 1996, 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2004; Region XXIII Champions in 1989, 1993, 1997, and 2002; National Tournament appearances in 1989, 1993, 1997, and 2002. Coach Young's Lady Wolves finished fourth in the 1989 National Tournament and has been consistently ranked nationally.

Young was named NJCAA Region XXIII Coach of the Year in 1989, 1993, 1997, and 2002. He was named MACJC and MAC Coach of the Year in 1993 and 2001. Young has also been named The Clarion-Ledger Coach of the Year in Mississippi Junior Colleges numerous times. He was inducted into the Copiah-Lincoln Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997.

In addition to coaching the Lady Wolves and overseeing the athletic department, Young also serves as the college's Vice President of Students Affairs. He holds an associate of arts degree from Co-Lin, a bachelor's degree from Mississippi College, and a master's degree from the University of Southern Mississippi.

Young is married to the former Velesta Smith, they are the parents of two children, Lane and Jessica.

Glenn Davis
Head Football Coach

Glenn Davis officially begins his first year as head football coach for the Wolves July 1, 2004. Davis previously served at Co-Lin as offensive coordinator from 1995-96. During his two years at Co-Lin, he helped lead the team to a 15-5 overall record. Davis is a 1982 graduate of Delta State University where he was a three-year letterman as a defensive back and outside linebacker for the Statesmen. His other coaching stints include offensive coordinator at South Natchez High School (1982-85), graduate assistant at Mississippi State (1986-87), defensive backs and wide receivers coach at the University of North Alabama (1988-91), and quarterbacks, running backs, and wide receivers coach at Holmes Community College (1992-94). Since 1997 he has served as running backs coach at Mississippi State under former head coach Jackie Sherrill.

Under Davis' tutelage, the Bulldogs lead the Southeastern Conference in rushing in 2000 averaging 193.8 yards per game and ranked third in 1998 averaging 172 yards per game. He mentored Diczno Miller to Mississippi State's sixth-ever, 1,000-yard season in 2000 (1,005 yards) and James Johnson to the fourth and fifth-ever, 1,000-yard campaigns in 1997 (1,069 yards) and 1998 (1,383 yards).

He and his wife Minta, are the parents of two children, Ann Shelby and Micah.

CHEERLEADERS

As we enter the new century we find cheerleading much different than it was just a generation ago. Cheerleading today is a unique combination of athleticism, entertainment and student leadership.

Here at Co-Lin we try to stay up with the changing times plus trying to keep a traditional atmosphere.

Tryouts are held each April. Former Co-Lin cheerleaders practice with the new cheerleaders starting in early March so they can be prepared for tryouts. Starting in May the new squad travels all over the surrounding counties teaching private camps to Jr. high cheerleaders. This continues until the middle of July. Each camp lasts anywhere from three to five days.

Co-Lin cheerleaders practice at least three to four times a week starting in May and continuing until school starts in August.

Co-Lin cheerleaders have been attending UCA cheer camp at the University of Alabama the last five years. They have won numerous awards and trophies throughout these five years.

Co-Lin cheerleading is a year round sport and takes a lot of hard work and dedication.

BLUE WAVE SHOW BAND

The Co Lin Blue Wave Show Band enters into the 2004 season with a fresh and energetic approach to the music of jazz artist Chuck Mangione.

Mangione burst onto the jazz music scene in the mid 70's and soon "crossed over" to top 40 radio with hits like "Feels So Good", "Hill Where the Lord Hides" and "Children of Sanchez." His music has been a staple with marching bands and drum and bugle corps ever since.

Drawing inspiration from his album "A Chuck Mangione Concert", the Blue Wave Show Band will open the show with "Children of Sanchez". The Color Guard/Colette feature is "Land of Make Believe" followed by the percussion solo, "Echano" arranged for the band by Assistant Band Director Chris Warren. The band concludes the show with

"El Gato Triste."

Student leaders for the band this year are Drum Major Katie Diamond of Brookhaven, Head Colette Brittany King of Wesson, Colette Co-Captains are Anna Smith of Loyd Star and Mallory McGlothlin of Madison. Color Guard Captains are Lori Walters of Crystal Springs and Sara Thurman of Brookhaven. Percussion Captain is Nick Stein of Terry. The Master of Ceremonies is Earl Bell of Wesson.

Look for a show filled with beautiful melodies and a high energy drill, which has become the trademark of the band. And, as always, there are a few other surprises.

The Co-Lin Blue Wave Show Band is directed by R. Shaw Furlow, Chris Warren, Shelley Huskey and Stanley W. Stewart.

Wolves get new look, new attitude in 2004

A new logo, new uniforms, a newly renovated field house, new coaching staff, and a new winning attitude are on the agenda for the 2004 Copiah-Lincoln Community College Wolves.

The Wolves are looking to change things under new head coach Glenn Davis. Davis, a former Mississippi State University assistant, is looking to rebuild a program that went 5-13 the past two seasons.

Davis admits that things won't change overnight. "We are young, but we have a good nucleus of players," Davis is a 1982 graduate of Delta State University where he was a three-year letterman as a defensive back and outside linebacker for the Statesmen. His other coaching stints include offensive coordinator at South Natchez High School (1982-85), graduate assistant at Mississippi State (1986-87), defensive backs and wide receivers coach at the University of North Alabama (1988-91), and quarterbacks, running backs, and wide receivers coach at Holmes Community College (1992-94). Since 1997 he has served as running backs coach at Mississippi State under former head coach Jackie Sherrill.

Under Davis' tutelage, the Bulldogs lead the Southeastern Conference in rushing in 2000 averaging 193.8 yards per game and ranked third in 1998 averaging 172 yards per game. He mentored Dizenzo Miller to Mississippi State's sixth-ever, 1,000-yard season in 2000 (1,005 yards) and James Johnson to the fourth and fifth-ever, 1,000-yard campaigns in 1997 (1,069 yards) and 1998 (1,383 yards).

In 1995, Davis served as an assistant coach at Co-Lin under Phil Broome. They were 15-5 during his term as offensive coordinator.

Expected to compete for the quarterback position are two freshmen: Beau Billeck (6-1, 205) of Wesson by way of Indiana, and Victor Williams (6-3, 205) of Clewiston, Fla.

At fullback, sophomores A. J. Holloway (6-0, 215) of Magee and Russell Robinson (6-0, 215) have experience. Robinson has moved from linebacker to offense. At tailback, Julius Roberson (5-11, 185) is also a veteran.

Co-Lin's offensive line is anchored by sophomores Luke Thames (6-1, 250) and Dale Holmes (6-1, 297). A newcomer expected to provide immediate help is James Redmond (6-6, 315), a Mississippi State transfer.

"We need to have 10-12 offensive linemen on the squad," said Davis.

Austin Baxter (6-5, 289), a transfer from MSU, gives the Wolves a large blocker at tight end.

Brett Shufelt begins his first year as defensive coordinator. Sophomore linebackers Lemoine Robinson (5-9, 215), Charles Powell (6-1, 222) and Lewis Thompson (5-11, 210) return with experience. Emmett Denson (6-0, 180) returns at free safety.

The defensive line will consist of all new players. Shadler Manning (6-5, 245), a Southern Miss transfer and freshman Rex Hill (6-1, 322) of Marathon, Fla. are expected to anchor the group.

"In the spring, we stressed being physical and leaning on the guy next to them," said Davis. "We don't want to use being young as an excuse. We're going to put the best 11 guys on each side of the ball."

Calvin Green, the only holdover from the previous coaching staff, coaches the secondary. Volunteer coach Chris Tolbert is directing the defensive line. Shelton Gandy is coaching the quarterbacks and running backs. Volunteer coach Rob Channell is in charge of the receiving corps.

The kicking game is in the hands of freshman Chris Blackwell of Franklin County. Freshman Adam Ogden of Brookhaven is the long snapper. Looking at the South Division, Davis expects returning state champion Pearl River to be the team to beat. Hinds and Jones should also be tough competition.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Wolves have high hopes for 2004-2005

After finishing the 2003-2004 campaign with a 10-15 record, the Wolves return two starters. Coach Dennis Sims is excited about the upcoming season with the return of five sophomores and a talented group of freshmen.

"I am looking forward to the upcoming season and believe that on paper this team has a chance to do some exciting things," said Coach Sims.

The Wolves are looking for valuable leadership and experience from this year's sophomore class. They return the team's second leading scorer Ledell Eackles, a 5-10 forward from Woodlawn High School in Baton Rouge, La., who averaged 15 points and 3.1 assists per game. Joining Eackles are veteran guards Dexter Middleton (6-3) and Brandon Caston (5-9), both are Brookhaven High School products.

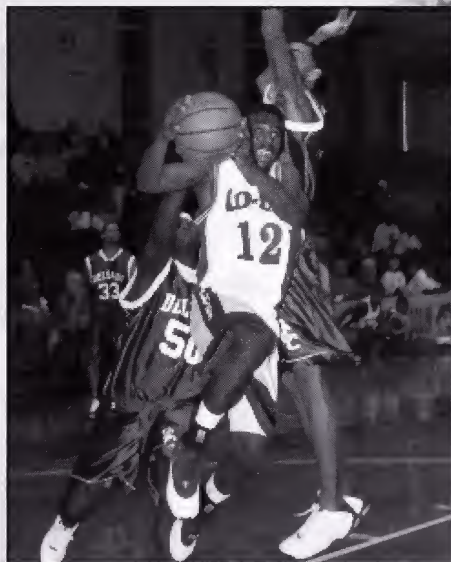

Middleton averaged 8 points and 3 rebounds per game and Caston averaged 4.2 points and 2 assists per game.

Also returning are two forwards, Derrick Stewart a 6'4" Natchez High School product who averaged 4 points and 2 rebounds per game and Luke Lofton, a 6'3" West Lincoln High School graduate who averaged 1.2 points and 1 rebound per game.

New signees and walk-ons include Jermaine Culver, a 6'5" forward from Brookhaven High School; Ivory Dishmon, a 5'6" guard from Clinton High School in Clinton, Ms.; Termaine Enochs, a 6'5" forward from Mendenhall; Lamar Hall, a 6'5" center from Brookhaven High School; Joe Holliday, a 6'2" guard from Lee High School in Baton Rouge, La.; Arvel Keys, a 6'4" forward from Mendenhall High School; Joe Squires, a 6'2" guard from Broadmoor High School in Baton Rouge, La.; Felton Walker, a 6'2" forward from Mendenhall High School; Bruce Washington, a 6'5" forward from Brookhaven; and transfer Cedric Walker, a 6'7" forward from Memphis, Tenn.

Lost to graduation are Jeremy Richardson (MACJC All-Star Game, Second Team All-State and Delta State University signee), Derek Jarvis (Tougaloo College signee), Don Lockhart (Millsaps College signee), and Rayshone Autman.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Lady Wolves will bring experience and talent to the court this season

The Copiah-Lincoln Lady Wolves finished the 2003-2004 season with a 19-9 record, a regular season second place finish, 2004 NJCAA Region XXIII Tournament Runner-up, and made a MACJC 2004 State Tournament appearance. The Lady Wolves will return eight players including three starters. Coach Young is excited about the possibilities for the 2004-2005 season with the return of an experienced sophomore class and a talented freshman class.

Coach Young said the sophomore class should bring experience and leadership to this year's team. "We have many key positions to fill in this year's lineup, but I feel with the depth that will have, players willing to work hard, and with leadership from our sophomores that we can compete in the tough MACJC conference," said Coach Young.

Returning sophomores Gloria Lewis (Natchez), Travalyn Smith (Jefferson County), Loretta Martin (Bonnabel, LA), Jessica Melton (Bogue Chitto), Dana King (West Lincoln), Crystal Brown (Natchez), Aiesha Collins (Hazlehurst), and Ayana Tillman (Brookhaven) will be counted on to guide the team this season.

Freshmen signees and walk-ons include Laquita Ard (North Pike), Ashley Murphy (Central Hinds), Jessica Smith (Marksville, LA), April Nathaniel (Hamilton, TN), Anna Altman (Brookhaven), Kristian

McCray (Brookhaven), Jennifer Carter (Magee), Lakeitha Hayes (Magee), Mable Green (Natchez), and Shariker Hargrave (Natchez) are expected to provide immediate help for 2004-2005.

Lost to graduation are MACJC All-Star Victoria Richardson and Lauren Williams, both Mississippi College signees; and Renee Fields.

Diamond Wolves look to improve after successful 2004 season

After a strong second place finish in the NJCAA Region 23 Tournament and a third place finish in the MACJC State Tournament, the Wolfpack are optimistic about a possible return to the NJCAA College World Series in May off 2005.

In order to get there, they will have to replace two out of three outfield positions as well as two infield positions and four pitchers.

Replacing four solid pitchers Tyler Perrett (a USM signee), Cass Brister, Cole Zumbro (a University of Montavello signee) and Jacob Leggett, will be a key to success this season. Returning to the staff in 2005 are Ryan Belanger (All-State, All-Region 23), Colby Beach, Matthew Fox and left hander Boycee Varnes. Lance Deville returns after sitting out the 2004 season with a medical red shirt.

Head Coach Keith Case will look to a promising freshman class of Derek Thompson of Simpson Academy, Joseph Langham of Wesson High School, Te Riley of Cathedral and Scotty Smith of Brookhaven High School.

Three freshmen (Matthew Delaughter of Loyd Star, Adam Ogden of Brookhaven High School and Matthew Schexnayder of Vanderbilt Catholic in Houma, LA) will join returnee Guy Alleman in competition for the catching position held last year by Diego Nucete (a Texas A&M Kingston signee).

Returning infielders include Jody Britt, Patrick Williams, Justin Sykes and Ben Sandifer. Freshmen Garrett Jones and Te Riley, both of Cathedral will be competing for a spot.

Centerfielder Keeyon Sanders is the lone returning starter outfielder. Looking to compete for a position are sophomore Joel Hurt and freshmen Josh Logan of Magee High School and Xavier Qualls of Brookhaven High School.

Brian Nobile is returning for his second year as an assistant to Coach Case as is volunteer coach and former Co-Lin standout Lance Newman.

Veteran PA announcer Dennis White returns for the 13th season.

"Another key to the season is for us to stay healthy and hopefully we can pick up where we left off last year," said Coach Case.

LADY WOLVES SOFTBALL

Lady Wolves look to rebuild in 2005

Coming off a season where they won a record 25 games, the Co-Lin Lady Wolves softball team looks to rebuild in 2005. The loss of seven sophomores including All-Region 23 selections Rachel Breaux (a Henderson State University signee), Katie Rouch and All-State selections Elise Dixon (a NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American), Ginny Dunaway, and Ashley Davis (a Mississippi College signee).

"With only five returning sophomores, we are counting on them to play leadership roles this season," said Head Coach Allen Kent. All five saw a fair amount of playing time last season. "We've got a solid incoming freshman class who will have an opportunity to step up and immediately contribute," said Kent.

Leading the five returnees are All-Region 23 selection Courtney Angel, All-South Division selections Angie Davis and Jessica Melton, and Mandy Vinson. "This is the solid core we will build on," said Kent.

The Lady Wolves will look to two very good quality freshmen pitchers in Emily Horne and Kendra Lindsey. Kent anticipates a smooth transition from high school to college for both players.

"We are extremely happy to have two quality pitchers with this talent coming into our program," said Coach Kent.

Also joining the Lady Wolves this season will be Jackie Stowe, a MPSA All-State outfielder/pitcher from Copiah Academy and Megan Bateman a MHSAA All-Star Game participant Megan Bateman.

"Our team speed will be much improved this season," said Kent. "We will have to continue to swing bats." Last year's team had a solid .365 batting average and averaged 6.4 runs per game. "That will be a tough act to follow," said Kent.

The Lady Wolves play in the tough South Division. Kent expects Mississippi Gulf Coast and Pearl River to be solid. Jones and Southwest should be improved this season.

MEN'S TENNIS

Men's tennis team NJCAA No. 2 Academic Team of the Year, bright prospects for 2005

Last spring, the Copiah-Lincoln men's tennis team finished as national runners-up in the NJCAA Academic Team of the Year with a 3.37 grade point average, in addition to ending the year with a 10-6 won-loss record and No. 5 in NJCAA Region XXIII standings.

"After finishing the 2002 season as the No. 1 NJCAA Academic Team of the Year and No. 3 in 2003, we weren't really surprised to be highly ranked with our players' grades," said veteran Coach Mike McIntyre. "But, we are pleased to finish fifth in the 12 team field at the state/regional tournament."

Freshman Bruce Cameron, a 41-year-old Australian, played at the top of the 2004 line-up at No. 1 singles and doubles. Sophomore Jeff Williams closed out at solid career playing at No. 2 singles and teaming with sophomore Ryan Canon in No. 2 doubles. Williams of Ethel, La., and Silliman Institute and Canon of Brookhaven Academy were fourth seeded in No. 2 doubles at the state/region tournament.

Freshman Jimmy Latham of Brookhaven played No. 3 singles and No. 3 doubles with fellow Brookhavenite freshman Craig Smith, a brother of 2001 No. 4 singles state champ and Academic All-American Chad Smith. No. 6 singles specialist Jamison Roane of Brookhaven and freshman Caleb DeBold of Monticello rounded out this year's team.

Prospects for the 2004-2005 year are bright. Cameron, Roane, DeBold and Smith will bring experience and leadership to the team. Among the hopeful recruits are a pair of heavy hitters from Croatia, Goran Samodajev and Dino Lovrin, both students of Lovro Roncevic. Roncevic was an exchange student at Brookhaven Academy in 1991-1992. In addition, Coach McIntyre expects a talented group of high school players to try out in the fall.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Lady Wolves repeat as Academic National Champions

The 2003-2004 Lady Wolves tennis team finished No. 1 in the Nation again as the Academic Team of the Year, the third time the Lady Wolves have received this honor. They competed fiercely on the court as they finished fourth in the State/Region Tournament and compiled a 9-5 dual match record. Kathy Phillips compiled a perfect 4.0 grade point average and received Distinguished Academic All-American honors.

This extremely young team that learned so much during the year was led by returning sophomore Ashley Hall of Brookhaven. Ashley attained a National ranking of No. 28 in singles and No. 23 in doubles with partner Sadie Corban, also of Brookhaven. Ashley and Sadie finished second in the state at No. 1 doubles, both were quarterfinalists in singles (No. 1 and No. 2 respectively). Sophomore Kathy Phillips played a limited schedule of matches due to a chronic elbow problem.

Leading the corp of freshmen was No. 3 singles/No. 2 doubles player Mary McCombs of Lumberton. Mary finished second in the state in singles and was a semi-finalist in doubles with partner Kari Martin of Silver Creek. Kari played No. 5 singles/No. 2 doubles and showed steady improvement throughout the year. Brittany Weeks of Brookhaven Academy played No. 3 doubles and No. 4 singles. Brittany made it to the quarterfinals of the state tournament in singles.

The 2004-2005 team will be counting on two returning sophomores, Brittany Weeks and Kari Martin, to play a major role in leadership and effort on the court.

Newcomers include freshman Lyndsay Franklin of West Lincoln High School, a three-time state runner-up in singles. Brittany Coleman of Brookhaven comes to the team with a strong forehand and powerful serve. Simpson Academy Most Valuable Player Leah Bush will be a great asset to the team. Leah, a Taylor Presidential Scholar, adds much needed experience. Also expected to bring athleticism to the team are freshman Daphne Buchanan of Stone Mountain, Georgia, Sheena Norman of Franklin County, and Ole Miss transfer Channelle McCrory.

MEN'S SOCCER

Youth dominates men's soccer team

The Copiah-Lincoln men's soccer team has made vast improvements each year and the 2004 season will be no different. With only two returnees from last year's squad, the young Wolves are ready to make a statement this season.

Many of the high schools in the Co-Lin district have only recently implemented soccer programs. Only two towns in the district have recreational soccer programs in their park district.

First year head coach Wayne Wallace takes over the helm in 2004. Wallace has 15 years of coaching experience with the Brookhaven Recreation Department.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

Lady Wolves soccer team building a foundation for the future

"We're just getting started with this sport," said Copiah-Lincoln Community College Women's Soccer Coach Andy Diaz-Moreno. Diaz-Moreno begins his first year as Copiah-Lincoln's women's soccer coach. He assisted Carolyn DiPaolo with the Lady Wolves for the past two years.

"I have helped Coach Carolyn DiPaolo for the past two years and found that coaching on the community college level is more challenging," said Moreno. A native of Havana, Cuba, he began playing soccer at age three. He traveled alone to the United States by shrimp boat at age 14. Diaz-Moreno played soccer and competed in track and field in junior and senior high school. After high school, he joined a semi-pro soccer team in Florida and was asked to tryout for the Florida Strikers. Diaz-Moreno began coaching soccer at Boys Town in Miami. In the fall of 2000, he moved to McCall Creek with his family.

Diaz-Moreno sees the potential for soccer in the community as well as for the Lady Wolves. "I want soccer to become as popular here as it is in the rest of the world," said Diaz-Moreno.

Golf team to compete in Division II in 2005

Coming off a banner year with a record of 6-1, the Co-Lin golf team will move up to Division II status for the 2005 season. According to golf coach and Wolf Hollow Pro Justin Smith, moving up will enable the program to offer scholarships and help the college in recruiting.

Sophomore Trent Maddox of Brookhaven and a trio of freshmen that included Craig Smith of Brookhaven, Eric Ferren of Brandon and Dale Sykes of Monticello led the Wolves. Smith was named to the 2004 NJCAA All-Region 23 Team and a MACJC First Team All-State selection. Sykes was named to the 2004 NJCAA All-Region 23 Team and Maddox was a MACJC Second Team All-State selection. The duo of Smith and Sykes represented the Wolves in the NJCAA National Tournament in Chautauqua, NY. Sykes won the Longest Drive Competition at the tournament.

The team has high expectations for 2005. Along with Smith, Sykes and Ferren, the freshmen class looks strong. Joining the Wolves are Taylor

Fortenberry of Gadsden, Alabama/Tylertown; Leland Hinton of Wesson, Cody Jordan of Brookhaven and Jessie Smith of North Pike.

"We hope to win it all this year," said Smith. "We've got a lot of guys that can play, and I expect a couple may walk on."

The NJCAA Division II National Tournament will be held in Alabama.
